

Please, do not change the law. My elderly friend buys everything and she cannot afford it, but she is lonely and the telemarketers pretend that they are her friends. Also Hispanics are very polite and do not hang -up on telemarketers and they also buy things that they do not need or they cannot afford.